Being true to herself, Pamela Wright is still hard at play!

Sure, instead of digging through her grandmother’s cedar chest for her own family’s heirlooms, Houstonians now visit her with family treasures for sale or loan at Wright Pawn and Jewelry. Of course, she no longer uses crayons, pipe cleaners and string to create jewelry for her friends; she now redesigns or buys unwanted estate jewelry, sterling flatware and gold. In place of her tiny twirling ballerina jewelry box, Pamela now owns a 7,500-square-foot pawnshop filled with sparkling engagement rings, designer jewelry, watches, handbags, etc. Making her little girl dreams into her big business realities spurs Pamela’s relentless passions including Citizens for Animal Protection, Houston Children’s Charity, Texas DAR (Lady Washington Chapter), Second Baptist Church and family.

No wonder her original designs have helped raise over $60,000 for the Texas Governor’s Mansion Restoration Fund! No wonder Wright Pawn and Jewelry is the 2011 BBB Pinnacle Award Winner in the Jewelers category, a five-time BBB Winner of Distinction and a two-time Houston Press Best Business! Discover the Wright Pawn difference and see for yourself why Pamela is a Houston gem!
